SECTION 1 - INTRODUCTION

This Manual is designed to acquaint you with MB Enterprise LLC and all of its divisions ie:

- Event Planning
- Catering
- Staffing
- Consulting

This manual will provide you with information about working conditions, benefits, and policies affecting your employment.

The information contained in this Manual applies to all employees of MB Enterprises LLC & All of its Divisions. Following the policies described in this Manual is considered a condition of continued employment. However, nothing in this Manual alters an employee's or independent contractors status.

The contents of this Manual shall not constitute nor be construed as a promise of employment or as a contract between the Company and any of its employees. The Manual is a summary of our policies, which are presented here only as a matter of information.

You are responsible for reading, understanding, and complying with the provisions of this Manual. Our objective is to provide you with a work environment that is constructive to both personal and professional growth.

1.1 CHANGES IN POLICY

This Manual supersedes all previous employee and independent contractor manuals and memos that may have been issued from time to time on subjects covered in this Manual.

However, since our business and our organization are subject to change, we reserve the right to interpret, change, suspend, cancel, or dispute with or without notice all or any part of our policies, procedures, and benefits at any time. We will notify all employees of these changes. Changes will be effective on the dates determined by the Company, and after those dates all superseded policies will be null.

No individual supervisor or manager has the authority to change policies at any time. If you are uncertain about any policy or procedure, speak with your direct supervisor.

1.2 EMPLOYMENT APPLICATIONS

We rely upon the accuracy of information contained in the employment application and the accuracy of other data presented throughout the hiring process and employment. Any misrepresentations, falsifications, or material omissions in any of this information or data may result in exclusion of the individual from further consideration for employment or, if the person has been hired, termination of employment.

1.3 EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP

You enter into employment voluntarily, and you are free to resign at any time for any reason or no reason. Similarly, DB Enterprises LLC is free to conclude its relationship with any employee at any time for any reason or no reason. Following the probationary period, employees are required to follow the Employment Termination Policy (See Section 3.13).

SECTION 2 - DEFINITIONS OF EMPLOYEES STATUS

"EMPLOYEES" DEFINED An "employee" of MB Enterprises LLC is a person who regularly works for MB Enterprises LLC on a wage or salary basis. "Employees" may include exempt, non-exempt, regular full-time, regular part-time, and temporary persons, and others employed with the Company who are subject to the control and direction of MB Enterprises LLC in the performance of their duties.

EXEMPT

Employees whose positions meet specific criteria established by the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) and who are exempt from overtime pay requirements. Full-time salaried managerial event planning and operations staff members are exempt according to the criteria set forth by the FLSA.

NON-EXEMPT

Employees whose positions do not meet FLSA criteria and who are paid one and one-half their regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of 40 hours per week. These employees include part-time staff, wait, catering, and bartending staff.

REGULAR FULL-TIME

Employees who have completed the 90-day probationary period and who are regularly scheduled to work 35 or more hours per week. Generally, they are eligible for the Company's benefit package, subject to the terms, conditions, and limitations of each benefit program.

REGULAR PART-TIME

Employees who have completed the 90 day probationary period and who are regularly scheduled to work less than 35 hours per week.

TEMPORARY (FULL-TIME or PART-TIME)

Those whose performance is being evaluated to determine whether further employment in a specific position or with the Company is appropriate or individuals who are hired as interim replacements to assist in the completion of a specific project or for vacation relief. Employment beyond any initially stated period does not in any way imply a change in employment status.

Temporary employees retain that status until they are notified of a change. They are not eligible for any of the Company's benefit programs.

Independent Contractors or 1099 Employees

Independent contractors will be responsible for paying all taxes due to the state based on the calendar year.

PROBATIONARY PERIOD FOR NEW EMPLOYEES

A new employee whose performance is being evaluated to determine whether further employment in a specific position or with MB Enterprises LLC is appropriate. When an employee completes the probationary period, the employee will be notified of his/her new status with MB Enterprises LLC.

SECTION 3 - EMPLOYMENT POLICIES

3.1 NON-DISCRIMINATION

In order to provide equal employment and advancement opportunities to all individuals, employment decisions at MB Enterprises LLC & all divisions will be based on merit, qualifications, and abilities. MB Enterprises LLC and all of its divisions does not discriminate in employment opportunities or practices because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age or disability.

MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions will make reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals with known disabilities unless doing so would result in an undue hardship. This policy governs all aspects of employment, including selection, job assignment, compensation, discipline, termination, and access to benefits and training.

Employees with questions or concerns about discrimination in the workplace are encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of their supervisor. Employees can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal. Anyone found to be engaging in unlawful discrimination will be subject to disciplinary action, including termination of employment.

3.2 NON-DISCLOSURE/CONFIDENTIALITY

The protection of confidential business information and trade secrets is vital to the interests and success of MB Enterprises LLC all of its divisions. Such confidential information includes, but is not limited to, the following examples:

- Compensation data,
- Financial information,
- Marketing strategies,
- Pending projects and proposals,
- Proprietary production processes,
- Personnel/Payroll records, and
- Conversations between any persons associated with the company.

All employees are required to sign a non-disclosure agreement as a condition of employment.

Employees who improperly use or disclose trade secrets or confidential business information will be subject to disciplinary action, including termination of employment and legal action, even if they do not actually benefit from the disclosed information.

3.3 NEW EMPLOYEE ORIENTATION

Orientation is a formal welcoming process that is designed to make the new employee feel comfortable, informed about the company, and prepared for their position. New employee orientation is conducted by a Human Resources representative, and includes an overview of the company history, an explanation of the company core values, vision, and mission; and company goals and objectives. In addition, the new employee will be given a overview of benefits, tax, and legal issues, and complete any necessary paperwork.

Employees are presented with all procedures needed to navigate within the workplace. The new employee's supervisor then introduces the new hire to staff throughout the company, reviews their job description and scope of position, explains the company's evaluation procedures, and helps the new employee get started on specific functions.

3.4 PROBATIONARY PERIOD FOR NEW EMPLOYEES

The probationary period for regular full-time and regular part-time employees lasts up to 90 days from date of hire. During this time, employees have the opportunity to evaluate our Company as a place to work and management has its first opportunity to evaluate the employee. During this introductory period, both the employee and the Company have the right to terminate employment without advance notice.

Upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period, a 14 day review as well as a 30 and 45 day review will be given and benefits will begin as appropriate. All employees, regardless of classification or length of service, are expected to meet and maintain Company standards for job performance and behavior (See Section 4, Standards of Conduct).

3.5 OFFICE HOURS

The standard workweek is 40 hours of work (see Section 5.3, Overtime). In the computation of various employee benefits, the employee workweek is considered to begin on Monday (starting at 12:00 a.m.) through Sunday (ending at 11:59p.m.), unless a supervisor makes a prior arrangement with the employee.

3.6 BREAK PERIODS

The law in Massachusetts states that an employer must provide a thirty-minute meal break during each work shift that lasts more than six hours. This one half-hour meal break is unpaid. In addition, Massachusetts' law does not require employers to provide any rest breaks.

If employees have unexpected personal business to take care of, they must notify their direct supervisor to discuss time away from work and make provisions as necessary. Personal business should be conducted on the employee's own time.

Employees who do not adhere to the break policy will be subject to disciplinary action, including termination.

3.7 PERSONNEL FILES

Employee personnel files include the following: job application, records of participation in training events, salary history, records of disciplinary action and documents related to employee performance reviews, coaching, and mentoring.

Personnel files are the property of MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions, and access to the information is restricted.

Employees who wish to review their own file should contact their supervisor or Head Office. With reasonable advance notice, the employee may review his/her personnel file in Company's office and in the presence of their supervisor or Head Office.

3.8 PERSONNEL DATA CHANGES

It is the responsibility of each employee to promptly notify their supervisor or Head Office of any changes in personnel data such as:

- Mailing address,
- Telephone numbers,
- Name and number of dependents, and
- Individuals to be contacted in the event of an emergency.

An employee's personnel data should be accurate and current at all times.

3.9 INCLEMENT WEATHER/EMERGENCY CLOSINGS

At times, emergencies such as severe weather, fires, or power failures can disrupt company operations. The decision to close the business for the day will be made by a member of the executive board.

When the decision is made to close for the day, employees will receive official notification from their supervisors.

Time off from scheduled work due to emergency closings will be unpaid for all non-exempt employees. However, if employees would like to be paid, they are permitted to use vacation time if it is available to them.

3.10 EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE REVIEW AND PLANNING SESSIONS

Operations staff is required to undergo at least two performance evaluations during the probationary period, after which, the performance reviews will occur at least once every three months. For catering, wait, and bartending staff, performance reviews will be done if rendered necessary. Supervisors may conduct informal performance reviews and planning sessions more often if they choose.

Performance reviews and planning sessions are designed for the supervisor and the employee to discuss his/her current job tasks, encourage and recognize attributes, and discuss positive, purposeful approaches for meeting work-related goals. Together, employee and supervisor discuss ways in which the employee can accomplish goals or learn new skills. The planning sessions are designed for the employee and his/her supervisor to make and agree on new goals, skills, and areas for improvement.

MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions directly links wage and salary increases with performance. Your performance review and planning sessions will have a direct effect on any changes in your compensation. For this reason among others, it is important to prepare for these reviews carefully, and participate in them fully.

3.11 OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT

Employees may hold outside jobs in non-related businesses or professions as long as the employee meets the performance standards of their job description with MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions. Unless an alternative work schedule has been approved by MB Enterprises LLC and all of its divisions, employees will be subject to the company's scheduling demands, regardless of any existing outside work assignments.

MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions office space, equipment, and materials are not to be used for outside employment.

3.12 CORRECTIVE ACTION

MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions holds each of its employees to certain work rules and standards of conduct (see Section 4). When an employee deviates from these rules and standards, MB Enterprises LLC expects the employee's supervisor to take corrective action.

Corrective action at MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions is progressive. That is, the action taken in response to a rule infraction or violation of standards typically follows a pattern increasing in seriousness until the infraction or violation is corrected.

The usual sequence of corrective actions includes an oral warning, a written warning, probation, and finally termination of employment. In deciding which initial corrective action would be appropriate, a supervisor will consider the seriousness of the infraction, the circumstances surrounding the matter, and the employee's previous record.

Though committed to a progressive approach to corrective action, MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions considers certain rule infractions and violations of standards as grounds for immediate termination of employment. These include but are not limited to: theft in any form, insubordinate behavior, vandalism or destruction of company property, being on company property during non-business hours, the use of company equipment and/or company vehicles without prior authorization by Michael Burris, untruthfulness about personal work history, skills, or training, divulging Company business practices, and misrepresentations of MB Enterprises LLC and all of its divisions to a customer, a prospective customer, the general public, or an employee.

3.13 EMPLOYMENT TERMINATION

Termination of employment is an inevitable part of personnel activity within any organization, and many of the reasons for termination are routine. Below are a few examples of some of the most common circumstances under which employment is terminated:

- Resignation – voluntary employment termination initiated by an employee.
- Termination – involuntary employment termination initiated by MB Enterprises LLC
- Layoff – involuntary employment termination initiated by MB Enterprises LLC for non-disciplinary reasons.

When a non-exempt employee intends to terminate his/her employment with MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions, he/she shall give MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions at least one week written notice. Exempt employees shall give at least three weeks written notice.

Since employment with MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions is based on mutual consent, both the employee and MB Enterprises LLC and all of its divisions have the right to terminate employment at will, with or without cause during the Introductory/Probationary Period for New Employees (See Section 3.3, Introductory/Probationary Period for New Employees).

Any employee who terminates employment with MB Enterprises LLC and all of its divisions shall return all files, records, keys, and any other materials that are property of MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions. No final settlement of an employee's pay will be made until all items are returned in appropriate condition. The cost of replacing non-returned items will be deducted from the employee's final paycheck. Furthermore, any outstanding financial obligations owed to MB Enterprises LLC will also be deducted from the employee's final check.

Employee's benefits will be affected by employment termination in the following manner. All accrued and vested benefits that are due and payable at termination will be paid. Some benefits may be continued at the employee's expense (See Section 5, Benefits) if the employee elects to do so. The employee will be notified of the benefits that may be continued and of the terms, conditions, and limitations.

3.14 SAFETY

MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions provides information to employees about workplace safety and health issues through regular internal communication such as:

- Training sessions
- Team meetings
- Memorandums
- Other written communications

Each employee is expected to obey safety rules and exercise caution and common sense in all work activities. Employees must immediately report any unsafe conditions to their supervisor. Employees who violate safety standards, cause hazardous or dangerous situations, or fail to report, or where appropriate, remedy such situations, may be subject to disciplinary action including termination of employment.

In the case of an accident that results in injury, regardless of how insignificant the injury may appear, employees should notify their supervisor (See Section 3.16, Employee Requiring Medical Attention).

3.15 HEALTH-RELATED ISSUES

Employees who become aware of any health-related issue, including pregnancy, should notify their supervisor and Head Office of health status. This policy has been instituted strictly to protect the employee.

A written "permission to work" from the employee's doctor is required at the time or shortly after notice has been given. The doctor's note should specify whether the employee is able to perform regular duties as outlined in his/her job description.

A leave of absence may be granted on a case-by-case basis. If the need arises for a leave of absence, employees should notify their supervisor and Michael Burriss.

3.16 EMPLOYEE REQUIRING MEDICAL ATTENTION

In the event an employee requires medical attention, whether injured or becoming ill while at work, the employee's personal physician must be notified immediately. If it is necessary for the employee to be seen by the doctor or go to the hospital, a family member will be called to transport the employee to the appropriate facility. If an emergency arises requiring Emergency Medical Services to evaluate the injury/illness of an employee on-site, the employee will be responsible for any transportation charges. Furthermore, MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions employees will not be responsible for transportation of another employee due to liabilities that may occur.

A physician's "return to work" notice may be required.

3.17 INSURANCE ON PERSONAL EFFECTS

MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions assumes no risk for any loss or damage to personal property.

3.18 SUPPLIES; EXPENDITURES; OBLIGATING THE COMPANY

Only authorized persons may purchase supplies in the name of MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions. No employee whose regular duties do not include purchasing shall incur any expense on behalf of MB Enterprises LLC and all of its divisions or bind MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions by any promise or representation without written approval.

3.19 EXPENSE REIMBURSEMENT

Expenses incurred by an employee must have prior approval by a supervisor. Reimbursements will be issued with proof of purchase and receipt. All completed reimbursement request forms should be turned in to Michael Burriss or appropriate office personnel.

3.20 VISITORS IN THE WORKPLACE

To provide for the safety and security of employees, visitors, and the facilities at MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions, we implore the staff to use common sense regarding personal visitors.

3.21 IMMIGRATION LAW COMPLIANCE

MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions employs only United States citizens and those non-U.S. citizens authorized to work in the United States in compliance with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.

Each new employee, as a condition of employment, must complete the Employment Eligibility Verification Form I-9 and present documentation establishing identity and employment eligibility. Former employees who are rehired must also complete the form if they have not completed an I-9 with MB Enterprises LLC all of its divisions within the past three years or if their previous I-9 is no longer retained or valid.

SECTION 4 - STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

The work rules and standards of conduct for MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions are important, and the Company regards them seriously. All employees are urged to become familiar with these rules and standards. In addition, employees are expected to follow the rules and standards faithfully in doing their own jobs and conducting the Company's business. Please note that any employee who deviates from these rules and standards will be subject to corrective action, up to and including termination of employment (see Section 3.12, Corrective Action).

While not intended to list all the forms of behavior that are considered unacceptable in the workplace, the following are examples of rule infractions or misconduct that may result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment.

- Theft or inappropriate removal or possession of property;
- Falsification of timekeeping records (See Section 5.2, Timekeeping);
- Working under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs (See Section 4.6, Substance Abuse);
- Possession, distribution, sale, transfer, or use of alcohol or illegal drugs in the workplace (See Section 4.6, Substance Abuse);
- Fighting or threatening violence in the workplace;
- Boisterous or disruptive activity in the workplace;
- Negligence or improper conduct leading to damage of company-owned or customer-owned property;
- Insubordination or other disrespectful conduct;
- Violation of safety or health rules;
- Smoking in the workplace;
- Sexual or other unlawful or unwelcome harassment (See Section 4.3, Harassment, Including Sexual Harassment);
- Excessive absenteeism or any absence without notice (See also, Section 4.1 Attendance/Punctuality and 4.2, Absence without Notice);
- Unauthorized use of telephones, or other company-owned equipment (See Section 4.4, Telephone Use);
- Using company equipment for purposes other than business (i.e. playing games on computers or personal Internet usage);
- Unauthorized disclosure of business "secrets" or confidential information;
- Violation of personnel policies; and
- Unsatisfactory performance or conduct.

Catering/Waitstaff/Bartending Staff Standards of Conduct:

All Catering, Bartending, and Waitstaff are required to adhere to the above written general standards of conduct in addition to the following:

- Do not eat/drink/chew gum in front of guests
- Do not sit unless placed on a break
- Must work as a team
- Use proper grammar and manners (e.g. "Yes Sir", "Yes Ma'am")
- Keep Busy (Cleaning Areas, Tables, etc.) - Do not remain idle.
- Know the foods being served
- Remain alert for any opportunity to serve our clients/guests

- Your shift/workday ends when the caterer or host dismisses you, regardless of the approximate end times. Once the host dismissed you, you should sign off on the group timecard. Once everyone has signed the timecard, have the client sign it to approve of the hours.

The following are immediate cause for termination:

- Drinking alcohol, smoking on premises, and drug use
- Bartenders and waitstaff are strictly prohibited from putting out tip cups
- Being a No Call/No Show for a scheduled event
- Using your cellphone while on shift
- Failure or refusal to do assigned work
- Time card misrepresentation
- Leaving a party before being dismissed (If you have an emergency, please contact Michael Burris and obtain permission first. Failure to do so will result in immediate termination.)

4.1 ATTENDANCE/PUNCTUALITY

The Company expects that every employee will be regular and punctual in attendance. This means being in the office, ready to work, at their starting time each day. Absenteeism and tardiness places a burden on other employees and on the Company.

If you are unable to report for work for any reason, notify your supervisor before regular starting time. You are responsible for speaking directly with your supervisor about your absence. It is not acceptable to leave a message on a supervisor's voice mail, except in extreme emergencies. In the case of leaving a voice-mail message, a follow-up call must be made later that day.

Should undue tardiness become apparent, disciplinary action may be required.

If there comes a time when you see that you will need to work some hours other than those that make up your usual work week, notify your supervisor at least seven business days in advance. Each request for special work hours will be considered separately, in light of the employee's needs and the needs of the Company. Such requests may or may not be granted.

4.2 ABSENCE WITHOUT NOTICE

When you are unable to work owing to illness or an accident, please notify your supervisor. This will allow the Company to arrange for temporary coverage of your duties, and helps other employees to continue work in your absence. If you do not report for work and the Company is not notified of your status, it will be assumed after two consecutive days of absence that you have resigned, and you will be removed from the payroll.

If you become ill while at work or must leave the office for some other reason before the end of the workday, be sure to inform your supervisor of the situation.

4.3 HARASSMENT, INCLUDING SEXUAL HARASSMENT

MB Enterprises LLC is committed to providing a work environment that is free of discrimination and unlawful harassment. Actions, words, jokes, or comments based on an individual's sex, race, ethnicity, age, religion, or any other legally protected characteristic will not be tolerated.

If you believe you have been the victim of harassment, or know of another employee who has, report it immediately. Employees can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal.

Any supervisor who becomes aware of possible harassment should promptly advise their supervisor or Head Office who will handle the matter in a timely and confidential manner.

4.4 TELEPHONE USE

MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions' telephones are intended for the use of serving our customers and in conducting the Company's business.

Personal usage during business hours is discouraged except for extreme emergencies. All personal telephone calls should be kept brief to avoid congestion on the telephone line.

Personal phone use for catering, wait, and bartending staff is prohibited while on shift.

To respect the rights of all employees and avoid miscommunication, employees must inform family members and friends to limit personal telephone calls during working hours.

If an employee is found to be deviating from this policy, he/she will be subject to disciplinary action (See Section 3.12, Corrective Action).

4.5 PUBLIC IMAGE

A professional appearance is important anytime that you come in contact with customers or potential customers. Employees should be well groomed and dressed appropriately for our business and for their position in particular.

The following items are considered inappropriate working attire for MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions:

- T-shirts with inappropriate or offensive gestures or advertising
- Tattered articles of clothing
- Revealing attire (including but not exclusive to midriff-baring tops, sheering clothing, etc.)
- Clothing that is not the required attire during catering and bartending events

When meeting with a client, the dress code is more business-oriented, including attire such as:

- Slacks and dress shirt or blouse
- Dress or skirt and blouse

If management occasionally designates "casual days," appropriate guidelines will be provided to you.

Consult your supervisor if you have any questions about appropriate business attire.

4.6 SUBSTANCE ABUSE

The Company is committed to providing a safe and productive workplace for its employees. In keeping with this commitment, the following rules regarding alcohol and drugs of abuse have been established for all staff members, regardless of rank or position, including both regular and temporary employees. The rules apply during working hours to all employees of the Company while they are on Company premises or elsewhere on Company business.

The manufacture, distribution, possession, sale, or purchase of controlled substances of abuse on Company property is prohibited.

Being under the influence of illegal drugs, alcohol, or substances of abuse on Company property is prohibited.

Working while under the influence of prescription drugs that impair performance is prohibited.

So that there is no question about what these rules signify, please note the following definitions:

- a. Company property: All Company owned or leased property used by employees.
- b. Controlled substance of abuse: Any substance listed in Schedules I-V of Section 202 of the Controlled Substance Act, as amended.
- c. Drug: Any chemical substance that produces physical, mental, emotional, or behavioral change in the user.
- d. Drug paraphernalia: Equipment, a product, or material that is used or intended for use in
- e. concealing an illegal drug, or otherwise introducing into the human body an illegal drug or controlled substance.

Illegal drug:

- a. Any drug or derivative thereof whose use, possession, sale, transfer, attempted sale or transfer, manufacture, or storage is illegal or regulated under any federal, state, or local law or regulation.
- b. Any drug, including – but not limited to – a prescription drug, used for any reason other than that prescribed by a physician.
- c. Inhalants used illegally.

Under the influence: A state of not having the normal use of mental or physical faculties resulting from the voluntary introduction into the body of an alcoholic beverage, drug, or substance of abuse.

Consistent with the rules listed above, any of the following actions constitutes a violation of the Company's policy on drugs and may subject an employee to disciplinary action, up to and including immediate termination.

Using, selling, purchasing, transferring, manufacturing, or storing an illegal drug or drug paraphernalia, or attempting to or assisting another to do so, while in the course of employment.

Working or reporting to work, conducting Company business or being on Company property while under the influence of an illegal drug or alcohol, or in an impaired condition.

4.7 SMOKING

Smoking is must be approved beforehand, is allowed only on break, and it cannot be within the view of clients. Employees must take care to carry around proper chemicals in order to mask the smell of cigarette smoke.

4.8 INTERNET USE

MB Enterprises LLC employees are allowed use of the Internet and e-mail when necessary to serve our customers and conduct the Company's business.

Employees may use the Internet when appropriate to access information needed to conduct business of the Company. Employees may use e-mail when appropriate for Company business correspondence.

Use of the Internet must not disrupt operation of the company computer network. Use of the Internet must not interfere with an employee's productivity. Employees are responsible for using the Internet in a manner that is ethical and lawful.

SECTION 5 - WAGE AND SALARY POLICIES

5.1 WAGE OR SALARY INCREASES

Each employee's hourly wage or annual salary will be reviewed at least once each year. The employee's review date will usually be conducted on or about the anniversary date of employment or the date of the previous compensation review. Such reviews may be conducted more frequently for a newly created position, or based on a recent promotion.

Increases will be determined on the basis of performance, adherence to company policies and procedures, and ability to meet or exceed duties per job description and achieve performance goals (See Section 3.10, Performance Review/Planning Sessions).

Although the Company's salary ranges and hourly wage schedules will be adjusted on an ongoing basis, MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions does not grant "cost of living" increases. Performance is the key to wage increases in the Company and/or at the discretion of the owner.

5.2 TIMEKEEPING

Accurately recording time worked is the responsibility of every non-exempt employee. Time worked is the time actually spent on a job(s) performing assigned duties. Employees are responsible for accurately documenting their time spent on individual jobs.

MB Enterprises LLC & all of its divisions does not pay for extended breaks or time spent on personal matters.

Authorized personnel will review time records each week. Any changes to an employee's time record must be approved by his/her supervisor. Questions regarding the timekeeping system should be directed to the appropriate person.

5.3 OVERTIME

Overtime compensation is paid to non-exempt employees in accordance with federal and state wage and hour restrictions. Overtime is payable for all hours worked over 40 per week at a rate of one and one-half times the non-exempt employee's regular hourly rate. Time off on personal time, holidays, or any leave of absence will not be considered hours worked when calculating overtime. In addition, vacation time does not constitute hours worked.

With the exception of retail stores (see below), employers do not have to pay overtime for Sunday work unless weekly hours exceed 40 or if overtime compensation on Sundays is required by union contract.

All overtime work performed by an hourly employee must receive the supervisor's prior authorization. Overtime worked without prior authorization from the supervisor may result in disciplinary action. The supervisor's approval on a timesheet authorizes pay for overtime hours worked.

5.4 PAYDAYS

All employees are paid weekly. In the event that a regularly scheduled payday falls on a weekend or holiday, employees will receive pay on the next day of operation.

If a regular payday falls during an employee's vacation, the employee's paycheck will be available upon his/her return from vacation.

If the employee is not at work when paychecks are distributed and does not receive the paycheck, the paycheck will be kept on file through the rest of the payday. If an employee is unable to pick up his or her check on payday, he or she will need to contact Michael Burris to arrange alternative means of receiving his/her paycheck.

Paychecks will not, under any circumstances, be given to any person other than the employee without written authorization. Paychecks may also be mailed to the employee's address or deposited directly into an employee's bank account upon request.

SECTION 6 - EMPLOYEE COMMUNICATIONS

6.1 PROCEDURE FOR HANDLING COMPLAINTS

Under normal working conditions, employees who have a job-related problem, question or complaint should first discuss it with their immediate supervisor. At this level, employees usually reach the simplest, quickest, and most satisfactory solution. If the employee and supervisor do not solve the problem, the MDB Ethnic Events & Staffing LLC and all of its divisions ask you to speak with Michael Burris
